

CGA/AF/WEB/04 Terms & Conditions

CGA Accreditation

Achieving the CGA accreditation standards refers to complying the terms and condition of accreditation as given below. The CGA Terms are applicable to all accredited organizations. These terms and conditions are integral part of accreditation criteria of the all accreditation schemes.

Accredited Organization shall follow accreditation mark guidelines provided on the website and accreditation schedule. No accreditation material may be used in any way which may mislead others or provide false information relating to the scope of the accreditation awarded.

The accredited organizations shall adhere accreditation certificates issued. The condition of maintaining such certificate is to adhere with the accreditation standards. Inappropriate use of a title or accreditation or failure to comply with this requirement will lead to cancellation of the accreditation.

CGA accreditation is subject to annual surveillances to monitor the performance of the accredited organizations.

Accredited shall strictly follow the CGA Schedule of Fee accepted along with Application for Accreditation.

Accredited organizations shall provide certification services as per the terms of CGA and maintain impartiality and integrity in all certification process.

Centre for Global Accreditation

Borsigstr 9, 10115 Berlin, Germany

Web: <http://www.cgaglobal.com>

Accredited organizations shall timely notify CGA for any change in legal structure, Organizational Structure, Location for accredited services or change in accreditation documents / scope.

CGA accreditations are as per the decision of accreditation council. An disagreements could be escalated as per Complaints and Appeal Process of CGA.

CGA shall not be liable to the accredited organization for any losses, damages or expenses including injury to reputation suffered by the accredited organization and/or third parties, arising directly or indirectly from the accreditation of the accredited organization, use of the CGA accreditation marks, assessment activities carried out on the accredited organization by CGA, its representatives, employees and/or agents.

The accredited organization agrees and shall indemnify CGA fully against all losses, damages and expenses suffered by SAC including but not limited to legal costs on a full indemnity basis and all claims by any third parties against SAC, arising directly or indirectly from the accreditation of the accredited organization, use of the CGA accreditation marks, assessment activities carried out on the accredited organization by CGA, its representatives, employees and/or agents.